                                                           Cadd9
                                                       To you Em
More than a thousand miles
                                                                    Cadd9
D Em Cadd9
                                                        I put on vinyl like classic violins
I have been lost my sense yuh
D Em
                                                        D Em
                                                                                 Cadd9
Going nowhere
                                                        This is my dancefloor and I'm doing my rhythm
                                                       D Em Cadd9
I am so young to give up for me now D Em. Cadd9
 Cadd9
But I remember you there
D Em
Talking about my life
                                                        Looked up to the sky and I saw my prayer there
 Cadd9
                                                        D Em
But I thought that I was right
                                                                     Cadd9
                                                        People feel immortal
D Em Cadd9
Probably talking when I should hear your voice
                                                        D Em Cadd9
D Em Cadd9
Sorry, it's my bad and I'm begging you for joy
                                                        But their love is silence
      Em
             Cadd9
                                                        I listen to you
I can?t hear my own sound
                                                         Em
                                                        To you
  Em Cadd9
City?s noise is too loud
                                                                  Cadd9
                                                        I just need one sign
D Em Cadd9
People feel immortal
                                                        One sign
D Em Cadd9
                                                        Sorry if I am rude
But their love is silence
                                                        Am I rude?
                                                             Cadd9
I listen to you
 Em
                                                        But I'm still alive? Alive?
To you
          Cadd9
                                                        Dunno what to do
I just need one sign
                                                              Fm
                                                        What to do
One sign
                                                        With the dragons in my own mind
Sorry if I am rude
                                                             D
                                                        I listen to you
    Em
Am I rude?
                                                          Em
   Cadd9
                                                        To you
But I'm still alive? Alive?
                                                         Cadd9
                                                        To you
