

Asleep At The Wheel - The Letter That Johnny Walker Read

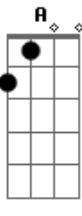

tom:
 A
 Johnny Walker sat at a table in a bar
 E
 Minding his own affairs
 D
 Drinking his namesake over the rocks
 He was drunk too drunk to care
 A
 When a girl from the bar walked up beside him
 E
 And this is what she said
 D
 She said a woman came by with a letter for you
 A
 And this is what the letter said
 E
 Dear John please Johnny please come home
 A
 I need your love and the kids they gotta be fed
 E
 And John if you don't hurry back I'll be gone
 Yes that's what the letter said
 A

The letter that Johnny Walker read
 E
 Then John he got up from the table
 D
 Slowly so slowly he walked outside
 A
 He was thinking of his wife and little children back at home
 A
 And how his drinking had ruined their lives
 E
 Then John he stared off into that street light
 E
 In a vision filled his poor poor heart with dread
 E
 For you see folks it was him lying drunk in the gutter
 A
 Clutching in his hand the letter that Johnny Walker read
 And this is what it said
 E
 Yes that's what the letter said
 A
 The letter that Johnny Walker read
 E
 Yes that's what the letter said
 A
 The letter that Johnny Walker read
