                                                                     Am
                                                                 And be yourself
Primeira Parte:
                                                                 Is all that you can do
(Parte 1 - 2x)
                                                                 (All that you can do)
                                                                     Am
                                                                 To be yourself
Someone falls to pieces
                                                                 Is all that you can do
Sleeping all alone
                                                                 (All that you can do)
Someone kills the pain
Spinning in the silence
She finally drifts away
                                                                 To be yourself
(Parte 2)
                                                                 Is all that you can do
                                                                 (All that you can do)
Someone gets excited
                                                                    Am
In a chapel-yard
                                                                 To be yourself
And catches a bouquet
Another lays a dozen
                                                                 Is all that you can do
White roses on a grave
                                                                 Solo:

       Am
And to be yourself
Is all that you can do
                                                                 (Parte 2)

Been put upon or been held up
( A C F D )
  Someone finds salvation
                                                                  Every single memory of
In everyone
                                                                     Am
                                                                 The good or bad
Another only pain
                                                                 (E D C)
                                                                  Faces of luck
Someone tries to hide himself
Down inside himself he prays
                                                                  Don't lose any sleep tonight
(Parte 2)
                                                                      Am
                                                                 I'm sure everything
   (E D C)
                                                                 Will end up alright
  Someone swears his true love
                                                                    You may win or lose
                                                                     Am
Until the end of time
                                                                 But be yourself
Another runs away
                                                                 Is all that you can do, yeah
