

Audioslave - Doesn't Remind Me

Intro: E , A , E x2
                                                               I don't want to learn what I'll need
                                                              Interlúdio:
I walk the streets of Japan till I get lost
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                                 Bend and shape me
With a graveyard tan carrying a cross
                                                               I love the way you are
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                                Slow and sweetly
                                                                  G
I like studying faces in a parking lot
                                                              Like never before
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                                 Calm and sleeping
I like driving backwards in the fog
                                                              We won't stir up the past
                                                                  Am
                                                                So descretely
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
Refrão:
                                                              We won't look back
                                                              Solo:
The things that I've loved the things that I've lost
                    D
The things I've held sacred that I've dropped
                                                                                     [ Wah ligado!
I won't lie no more you can bet
I don't want to learn what I'll need to forget
( Toque a intro)
                                                              Delay
Verso:
                                                                                                                      Wah
I like gypsy moths and radio talk desligado!]
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                              Refrão:
I like gospel music and canned applause
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                              The things that I've loved the things that I've lost
I like colorful clothing in the sun
                                                               The things I've held sacred that I've dropped
                                                                      D A
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                               I won't lie no more you can bet
I like hammering nails and speaking in tongues
                                                               I don't want to learn what I'll need
Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                              Verso:
Refrão:
                                                               I like throwing my voice and breaking guitars
The things that I've loved the things that I've lost
                                                               Cause it doesn't remind me of anything
                                                              A like playing in the sand what's mine is ours
The things I've held sacred that I've dropped
I won't lie no more you can bet
                                                               If it doesn't remind me of anything
