                                                                                   С
                                                                 She's my runaway girl on my mind
                                                                          D
                                                                 Give me runaway girls all the time
                                                                          D
                                                                                               Bb
                                                                                   С
                                                                 She's my runaway girl, far behind
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                          D
                                                                                   С
                                                                                                Bb
                                                                 Give me runaway girls all the time
She just don't know where she's at [Post-Refrão]
Bb
                     С
She want to buy or build her own flat
                                                                 Time, yeah, yeah
                   C
She's never had a home of her own
                                                                 Bb
                 С
                                                                 Time, yeah, yeah
Bb
She rarely even uses the phone
                                                                 All the time, Runaway, runaway
I don't want to be cheap and nasty
                                                                 [Solo] Bb C Bb C
Bb
                     C
I don't want to be hasty and crafty
                                                                 [Ponte]
I just want you to be yourself
'Cause tonight, tonight, I need some help
                                                                 It's alright (It's alright)

                                                                 You will be mine
I got a runaway girl on my mind
                                                                 Alright (Alright)
                 C
                               Bb
Give me runaway girls all the time
                                                                 Do right (Do right)
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                 Bb
                                                                 You will be mine
                        C
She's headed for those big bright lights
                                                                 [Refrão 2]
Bb
Used on the way, but that's alright
                                                                 D C Bb
                                                                 Girl (You will be mine, you will be mine, alright)
Seems like there's things you gotta sacrifice
                                                                 D C
                                                                       Bb
                                                                 Girl (Don't you know, you're my runaway)
  Bb
To get where you want to go
                                                                 D C Bb
                                                                 Girl (She's my little runaway)
                       С
Won't always be those motel keys
                                                                 D C Bb
                                                                 Girl (You will be my little runaway)
Bb
                       C
Won't always be them broken dreams
                                                                 [Solo] D C
                                                                              Bb
That runaway girl left behind with stars in her eyes
                                                                              Bb
                                                                        D C
                                                                        D C Bb
Bb
                   С
She's of a certain kind
                                                                        D C Bb
