Automatic Loveletter - Cruel Cruel
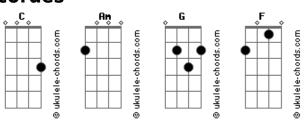

Tom: C

     C
  I wanna run away
Am                              G
   To somewhere far and somewhere safe
                        F
So scared of this place
C
Cause you don't even know me
                 Am              G
And you don't even care that I've been lonely
                        F
And tired of fighting in the den of the lions where I won't even try
C
And in the dead of the night I wait
Am
Early morning and I still haven't got some sleep
G
Call me crazy
Call me baby
                F
You can call me weak
                        C
You don't even know, no you don't even know

That the weight of the world on me
Am
I've been there and back again
                 G
And it seems to me
That a promise isn't something you keep
     F
And a secret never lasts
It only sees what you see

        C
Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
             Am
And if you want to come inside
               F
You better sit up and shut your eyes
          G
And hold on for dear life
            C                  Am              G
Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
     C       G        F
But I won't

C
I wanna hide my face
Am                          G

I wanna find the strength to get through this
                              F
Oh I know I can do it

C
It's the taste in my mouth
                  Am
It's the nauseousness

It's my stomach in knots forming cascades of gunshots    G
                            F
Leaving me holding a pen and this page and these words filled with rage

C
And in the dead of the night I wait
Am
Early morning and I still haven't got some sleep
G
Call me crazy
Call me baby
                F
You can call me weak
You don't even know

                   C
Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
             Am
And if you want to come inside
               F
You better sit up and shut your eyes
          G
And hold on for dear life
            C                  Am              G
Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
     C       G        F
But I won't

"Hello, can anyone hear me?"
"Oh, does anyone know me?"
"No, can anyone hear me?"
"No, can anyone love me?"
"No, can anyone, can anyone hear me?"

Cause it's a cruel cruel ride
And if you want to come inside
You better sit up and shut your eyes
And hold on for dear life
Cause if you don't then you will surely lose your mind
But I won't
But I won't
I won't
I won't
