

Avenged Sevenfold - Afterlife

Give me your hand but realize I just wanna say goodbye tom:
                                                                                               Bb
                                                                  Please understand I have to leave and carry on my own life
Like walking into a dream, so unlike what you've seen
                                                                  I don't belong here, I gotta move on dear
So unsure but it seems, 'cause we've been waiting for you
                                                                  Escape from this afterlife
Fallen into this place, just giving you a small taste
                                                                  'Cause this time I'm right to move on and on
Of your afterlife here so stay, you'll be back here soon
                                                                  Far away from here
                       Dm
I see a distant light, but girl this can't be right
                                                                  Got nothing against you and surely I'll miss you
Such a surreal place to see so how did this come to be
                                                                  This place full of peace and light, and I'd hope you might
                                                                                       Bb
                                                                  Take me back inside when the time is right
Arrived too early
                                                                  [Interlúdio] D Bb G Eb
And when I think of all the places I just don't belong
                                                                               D Bb G Bb A
                                                                                      Bh
I've come to grips with life and realize this is going too far Loved ones back home all crying 'cause they're Already missing me
I don't belong here, we gotta move on dear
                                                                     I pray by the grace of God
Escape from this afterlife
                                                                  That there's somebody listening
'Cause this time I'm right to move on and on
                                                                                 Bh
Far away from here
                                                                     Give me a chance to be that person I wanna be Oh Lord I'll try so hard
A place of hope and no pain, perfect skies with no rain
Can leave this place but refrain, 'cause we've been waiting
                                                                  But you gotta let go of me
                                                                  [Solo]
Fallen into this place, just giving you a small taste
Of your afterlife here so stay, you'll be back here soon
                                                                  I don't belong here, I gotta move on dear
                                                                  Escape from this afterlife
This peace on earth's not right (with my back against the
                                                                  'Cause this time I'm right to move on and on
                                                                  Far away from here
No pain or sign of time (I'm much too young to fall)
So out of place don't wanna stay, I feel wrong and that's \ensuremath{\mathsf{my}}
                                                                  Got nothing against you and surely I'll miss you
                                                                  This place full of peace and light, and I'd hope you might
I've made up my mind
                                                                  Take me back inside when the time is right
