           Gb
Yeah you could show up at my front door
                                                  I just want a bigger wow
 Ebm Db
                                                  Ebm Db
On a white horse I'll be ready
                                                   I'm not complaining
 Gb B
                                                     Gb B
                                                  We can jump out of an airplane
We can fall like we're confetti

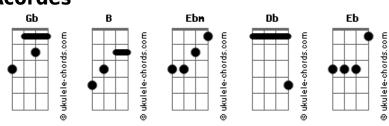

Gb B
                           Ebm
Just like kites unafraid of those heights
                                                  Gb B
                                                  I just want a bigger wow
                                                  Ebm Db
                                                   Bi-bi-bi-bi-bigger (wow)
      Gb
                                                  Gb B Ebm Db
We could sail across the ocean
 Ebm Db
                                                  Na na na na na
Winter summer any season
                                                  Gb B Ebm Db
                                                  Na na na na na
  Gb B
You can kiss me on the mountain top
 Ebm Db
                                                  [Ponte]
Don't ask me for a reason
  Gb B
                                                  You can tell me all the reasons

Ebm Db
Just like kites unafraid of those heights
                                                  Why we shouldn't be together
No cause sooner or later
[Refrão 1]
                                                  And spin me until I fall down
                                                    Ebm
                                                  Say that this will last forever
I just want a bigger wow
Ebm Db
                                                  Come on now
I'm not complaining
  Gb B
                                                  [Refrão 3]
I just want a bigger wow
                                                  Ebm Db
                                                  I'm not complaining
