D A B Bb
He was a boy, she was a girl, can I make it any more obvious?
D A B C
He was a punk, she did ballet, what more can I say?
D A Bm Bb
He wanted her, she'd never tell that secretly she wanted him as well
D A Bm C
But all of her friends stuck up their nose, they had a problem with his
F
Baggy clothes

C Bb
He was a skater boy, she said see you later boy
A B F
He wasn't good enough for her
C Bb
She had a pretty face, but her head was up in space
A Bb
She needed to come back down to earth

D A Bm
Five years from now, she sits at home
Bb
feeding the baby, she's all alone
D A Bm
She turns on TV, guess who she sees
C
Skater boy rocking up MTV
D A Bm
She calls up her friends, they already know
Bb
and they've all got tickets to see his show
D A Bm
She tags along, stands in the crowd
C
Looks up at the man that she turned down

F C Bb
He was a skater boy, she said see you later boy
A B F
he wasn't good enough for her
C Bb
Now he's a super star slamming on his guitar
A B F
Does your pretty face see what he's worth?

Dm F
Sorry girl, but you missed out
C
Well, tough luck that boy's mine now
Bb
We are more than just good friends
A Dm
This is how the story ends
F
Too bad that you couldn't see
C
See the man that boy could be
Bb
There is more than meets the eye
A D
I see the soul that is inside

A B
He's just a boy and I'm just a girl
Bb
Can I make it any more obvious?
D A Bm C
We are in love, haven't you heard how we rock each other's world?

F C Bb
I'm with the skater boy, I said see you later boy
A B
I'll be backstage after the show
F C Bb
I'll be at the studio, singing the song we wrote
A B F
About a girl you used to know
