

Avril Lavigne - Won't Let You Go

Until you weren't blue
Intro: Gb Db Ebm Bbm
                                                                When you're fire
Verso:
Lost the desire
                                                                Has turned to ashes
                                                                Ebm
To stay in this space
                                                                When you're screaming
No guide to direction
                                                                You're heart is bleeding
that your life could face
                                                                When you're feeling
                                                                Dh
Nothing is easy
                                                                Like there's no reason
                                                                Ebm Db B
You live in small place
                                                                I won't let you go
                                                                Gb B Db
Fall through the dark days
                                                                No, I won't let you go
With no sign of grace
                                                                It's when you're all alone and it's cold and there's no-one to Refrão:
                                                                hold

When you're fire
                                                                When you're feeling lost and there's no where, There's no
Has turned to ashes
                                                                When you're feeling sad, don't forget you can reach for my
When you're screaming
                                                                hand
You're heart is bleeding
                                                                When you're feeling down just remember

When you're feeling
                                                                I'll be here for you
Like there's no reason
                                                                You should realize

Verso 2:
In the others eyes
                                                                When you're feeling down just remember
                                                                Gb Db Fbm
There's only a disguise
                                                                When you're all alone and it's cold and there's no-one to hold of what you're showing
                                                                When you're feeling lost and there's no where, There's no
                                                                where to go
