[Primeira Parte]

```
D7M
What if I went wandering
                                  A
In a '68 Volkswagen van down to your doorstep
D7M
And I asked you to leave with me
                             A
Don't know how we'd get back, nor when
```

[Segunda Parte]

```
D7M
Well I've got twenty-seven dollars
                             A
And a piece of shit car is what I said
D7M
Would you call me insane
                         A
Or would you pack a bag and take my hand
```

[Pré-Refrão]

```
                         D7M
We drove the van on down to Utah
                             A7M
Saw the plateaus etched into the land
                         D7M
We wrote the love song of a blonde boy
                             A
Who's lost himself in trying to be a man
```
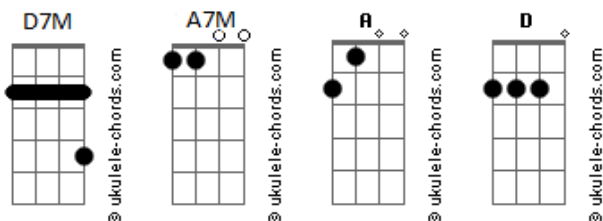

[Refrão]

```
D7M                              A
This lovely dream would be nothing without you in it
D
Take a step back, watch the sunset
A
Are you ready?
D7M                                A7M
Who would care though, I know I won't 'cause you're so pretty
D7M
Don't think too much 'cause you'll think twice
A
Are you with me?

( D  A )
```

[Terceira Parte]

```
D7M
What if we went driving
                                  A
On a winding road that never ends up through the Rockies
```

```
D7M
And you looked up outside your seat
                             A
And I caught you smiling at me, so sweet
```

[Quarta Parte]

```
                             D7M
One little van with just the two of us
                     A7M
Traveling alone led by the trees
                         D7M
Automobile filled with our love
                             A7M
A dream that I bury under the sheets
```

[Refrão]

D7M                              A7M

D7M                                A7M
Oh I'm sorry babe, I'm sorry for breaking your heart
