

Ax and the Hatchetmen - Utah

tom:

A

Intro: D D A D A A

[Primeira Parte]

D
What if I went wandering
In a '68 Volkswagen van down to your doorstep
D
And I asked you to leave with me
Don't know how we'd get back, nor when
A

[Segunda Parte]

D
Well I've got twenty-seven dollars
And a piece of shit car is what I said
D
Would you call me insane
Or would you pack a bag and take my hand
A

[Pré-Refrão]

D
We drove the van on down to Utah
Saw the plateaus etched into the land
D
We wrote the love song of a blonde boy
A
Who's lost himself in trying to be a man

[Refrão]

D
This lovely dream would be nothing without you in it
D
Take a step back, watch the sunset
A
Are you ready?
D
Who would care though, I know I won't 'cause you're so pretty
D
Don't think too much 'cause you'll think twice
A
Are you with me?

(D A)

[Terceira Parte]

D
What if we went driving
On a winding road that never ends up through the Rockies

D

And you looked up outside your seat
And I caught you smiling at me, so sweet
A

[Quarta Parte]

D
One little van with just the two of us
Traveling alone led by the trees
D
Automobile filled with our love
A
A dream that I bury under the sheets

[Refrão]

D
This lovely dream would be nothing without you in it
D
Take a step back, watch the sunset
A
Are you ready?
D
Who would care though, I know I won't 'cause you're so pretty
D
Don't think too much 'cause you'll think twice
A
Are you with me now?
D
Woah oh oh, oh oh

(D A)
(D A)

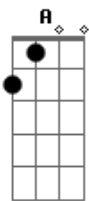

D
I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry for breaking your heart
D
I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry for breaking your heart

D
Oh I'm sorry babe, I'm sorry for breaking your heart
D
Oh I'm sorry love, I'm sorry for breaking your heart

D
We drove the van on down to Utah
A
Woah oh oh woah oh woah oh oh oh
D
We drove the van on down to Utah
A
Nah nah, nah nah oh
