I was looking through the files, and I found this song, so I printed it out, seeing if it could help me get the finishing touches on it. When I got back home, I found that the file was lacking many things. I spent hours listening to the song changing every little detail until I got it right. This is a correction to the one already there.

Verse 1:

When can my heart beat again?
When does the pain ever end?
And when do the tears stop from running over?
When does "you'll get over it" begin?

I hear what your saying but I swear that it's not making sense.
So when can I see you.

Chorus:

When can I see you again?
When can my heart beat again?
When can I see you again, baby?
And when can I breathe once again?
And when can I see you (again).

Verse 2:

When does my someday begin, when I'll find someone again?
And what if I still am not truly over, what am I s'posed to do then, baby.

Do you see what I'm saying, even if it is not making sense.
So when can I see you.

Chorus

I hope that this helps out. It's probably not perfect yet, but I know it's close.
