

Bad Religion - Adams Atoms

Tom: G
Intro: Em D
Some live, some die
C G D C
Everybody wonders why we're here should even try
G D C G
Philosophies lost in the night

Verse1:
D C
A beacon in the distance, you gotta turn around
G D
Its vestige deeply flickers in elocution sound
D G
The modernist chronometer uptining underbound
C D
Pretensions of a higher ground

Chorus1:
C Em
Higher ground
G D Em
Intro: spective paradise found
C Em G D Em
Adam's atoms resound

Verse2:
The economy of nature, the dead and shallow graves
The particles of happiness elude us in their names

Eternal is the night and day

Chorus2:
Night and day
Omnipresency those who fade
Adam's atoms remain

Break:
Em D C G D C G D
G

Verse3:
The righteous opposition has led us all astray
One side against the other, one loses one reclaimed
And if reconciliation eludes us every day
Then will we ever find a way?

Last Chorus:
C Em
Find a way
G D Em
Not without religion as gaze
C Em G D Em
Adam's atoms remain
C Em G D Em
Adam's atoms betray
C Em G D Em
Adam's atoms remain
