Tom: C

    The Empire Strikes First

Tabed by: Justin Le Tourenau my email is .

I re-wrote my original tab so it was in standard tuning, and added the solo (I have no idea if it's right, but it sounds good to me)

Note: Lowercase letters are meant to signify the higher note (example F - 133xxx
f - x81010xx)

Verse:

pick slide;
```
D              F    C                   B / C
```
This song goes out to all the hopeless sinners

With Grave allegiances so meaningless and vain

The walking wounded, in a pageant of contenders,
```
Eb                    Bb                          f(let ring)
who balance on a rail of pain for just a pail of rain

Chorus:
```
            D        Bb         f          e
```
And everything is barely mised- blood relations and bricks
```
D                    Bb
```
My expression, my confession
```
    F           A           D
    Bb         F        A
```
Once again, like a bullet, as a freind tell me;
```
Bb        C        D (let ring)
```
Can that be all there is?
```
D              F         C             B / C
```
In my rectory of doubt i kneel to prlay like one devout

As time the great gray dreamless sleep of a useless modern god

Erodes away each storied day as wreched Adams with hell to pay
```
Eb                    Bb                f(let ring)
```
Content upon a rail of pain for just a little rain

Verse 2:
```
            D        Bb         f          e
```

And everything is dearly mised- blood relations and bricks
```
D                      Bb
```
My expression, my confession
```
F                      A                 D
      Bb        F       A
```
Once again, like a bullet, as a freind tell me;
```
Bb        C           D (let ring)
```
Can that be all there is?

Solo:
Rythem - (Play the first 2 lines of Verse 2 and then play Eb

Verse 3:

(Palm Mute)
```
D                           F            C
B / C
```
There's and endless disposition and it doesn't mean a god
damn thing

There's space for a paper airplane race in the eye of a hurricane
```
        D                        A
```
And if pigs could fly then surely so could I
```
  B                              f \ e
```
But this pedestrian know better than to even try
```
            e              B                        f
```
My divinity is caught between the colors of a butterfly

pick slide;
```
            D      Bb         f          e
```
And everything is dearly mised- blood relations and bricks
```
D                      Bb
```
My expression, my confession
```
F                   A                 D
      Bb              F       A
```
Once again, like a bullet, as a freind tell me;
```
Bb        C        A       Bb
```
Can that be all there is?
```
C           D       (let ring)
```
All there is?
