

Tom: B

Bad Religion - Candidate

```
I'll make it go away (ay, ay, ay)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          [Solo] \ D \quad A \quad Gb \quad Bm \quad G \quad D \quad A \quad A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   D A Gb Bm G D A A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Bm
As I walk along this road paved with human kindness
              G D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Believers, dupes and clowns I want you all to gather 'round
                                                                                                       Α
I can never forget the price you've paid % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          To glorify ignorance and fear
                    D A Gb
I'm an actor on a role, an artificial virus
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I dispense misinformation to a post-truth generation
           G D A A A
I'm your daddy, I'm your disgrace
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         My darlings

Gb (Gb Gb Gb ) (Gb4 Gb )

am your
                                                              D
I say, "Kid just move along we don't want it, don't need it {\color{red}G} \quad {\color{blue}D} \quad {\color{blue}A}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Don't shed a tear ... For I ... am your
Your politics just breed despair"
                                                                          D Gb
I salute an empty flag of ancient tribalism and trust me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Candidate
Gb (Gb Gb Gb ) (Gb4 Gb )
Nobody cares ... For I ... am your
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I am bloody lips and makeup (uh) (uh)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Bm G D A
   Bm G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I'm your caliphate
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Bm G
Opioids and mutilation
Candidate
                    Bm
                                                                                   G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Bm G D A
I am bloody lips and makeup (uh) (uh)
       Bm G D A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          An hermaphrodite
I'm_your caliphate
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          In restrooms and service stations (uh) (uh)
Opioids and mutilation
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Bm G D
Bm G D A
A celebrity
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I truly feel your pain (feel your pain)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          And I can make it go away
             Bm
And my name is competition (uh) (uh)
                           Bm G
                                                                                                                  D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I'll make it go away
I've come to bear your pain (bear your pain)
                       Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          I'll make it go awa-ay!
And I can make it go away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          [Final] Bm
I'll make it go away,
Acordes
```

