

Bad Religion - Markovian Process

Tom: Db

Intro: Db Eb Ab F

Db Eb C

Db Eb F

You will all say that I am surely crazy

Db Eb F

Only an unrepentant pessimist whos thoughts should be detained

Db Eb F

But facts are sterile, not vulgar nor sublime

Db Eb F

And they're no religion they're for everyone

Db Eb F

they signify the time

Db Eb F

Today is a window, tomorrow the landscape

Db Eb F

All you need to do is take a look outside to know we're bound to face

Db Eb F

Db Eb F

The Level of disparity the common man

Db Eb F

The manner of destruction of the native land

Ab Eb F

The poverty of reprisal from all involved

Db Eb F

And the scathing trajectory from the past

Db Eb C

Db Eb F

Markovian Process, lead us not in vain

Db Eb F

Prove to our descendants what we did to them

Db Eb F

Then make us go away

Db Eb F

Ah-Ah
