Bad Religion - Past Is Dead

Tom: C

   Bad Religion - Past Is Dead

Song starts with a main intro part like this:

Play the above part 3 times and then go to this once:

Then the totally awesome intro solo bursts in out of nowhere:

Next comes the verse (also played behind the solo):

Play that part twice, then go to the pre-chorus:

Then hit the chorus, which goes like this:

Now come to the post-chorus part:

Then it comes to the verse, which you play twice.
Then play the pre-chorus once, and come into the chorus exactly the way it is played the first time.
Then it plays the muted post-chorus part (which is played all the way through), which, after having been played one and a half times, is followed by a repeatedly strummed G power chord.
Then comes the solo (The chords behind which are just the chorus pattern of F-C-G-G played four times):
