

Bad Religion - Positive Aspect

Tom: G

let's D gather 'round the carcass of the old A deflated beast, we have seen it through the C accolades and rested in its G lea, syntactic is our D elegance, incisive A our disease, the C swath endogenous of ourselves will be our G quandary, D we've D nestled in its hollow and we've A suckled at its breast, grandiloquent our C attitude, impassioned yet G inept, D frivolous gavel our design, A ludicrous our threat, C excursive expeditions leave us holding G less and less, D so what does it A mean?

when we F tell ourselves it's only for a while we have been C deceived and it's Bb only for a moment that the F treasures of our day make life C easier to complicate, the Bb treasure thrown away, G Ab F I'm so tired of all the G fucked up minds Ab F of all the G terrorist religions and their Ab F bullshit lines, of all the G hand-me-downs from all Ab F industrial crimes and the G weeping mothers and those who are Ab F led so blind, from the G plastic protests and the Ab F hands of time and the G pursuit of mirth and all Ab F hating kind
