

Bad Religion - The Answer

Tom: G

Em C A C D Em
Long ago, in a dusty village full of hunger, pain and strife,
Em D C B
A man came forth with a vision of truth and a way to a better
A D life.
Em G C
He was convinced he had the answer and he compelled people to D follow along.
B C A
But the hunger never vanished, and the man was banished, and C D E
the village dried up and died.

Em D C
At a time when wise men peered through glass tubes toward the B skies,
Em D C
The Heavens changed in predictable ways and one man was able
A D
to find,
Em G C
That he had thought he'd found the answer and he was quick to write his revelations.
B C A C
But as they were scrutinised in his colleagues eyes, he soon
D Em
became a mockery.

Em G C
Don't tell me about the answer 'cause then another one will
come along soon.

Em G C B
I don't believe you have the answer, I've got ideas too.
C A
But if you've got enough naivet  , and you've got conviction,
C D Em
Then 'The Answer' is perfect for you.

Solo:

Em D C
An urban sprawl sits, choking on it's discharge, overwhelmed
B
by industry,
Em D
Searching for a modern day saviour from another place,
C A D
inclined toward charity
Em G C D
Everyone begging for an answer without regard to validity,
B C
A C
The searching never ends, it goes on and on and on for D Em
eternity.
Em G C D (2x)
AAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH
C D Em
The answer is perfect for youuuuuuuuuu!
