

Ball Park Music - It's Nice To Be Alive

```
Intro: Ab Db Eb Eb7
                                                               While you're here with me
Gol
                                                                So stop! Don't get carried a-way
( Ab Fm Db Eb )
( Ab Fm Db Eb )
                                                                Darlin' don't you understand that every time we wave our hands
                                                               We're cool. We're xxxxing a-mazing
                              Dh
Boring as bat-xxxx you people make me feel so
                                                               We dropped down from some other dimension
Curious and I don't know why You think you'll end up in the
                                                                Just to be with you
Happy as Larry and riding sheep on clouds, well
                                                                Don't stress
                                                                Fm
I'd prefer your enthusiasm, while you're here with me
                                                                That's dumb
                                                                                   Fb
So stop! Don't get carried a-way
                                                                I'm here, and it's nice to be alive
Darlin' don't you understand that every time we wave our hands Ab
                                                                Chill out
We're cool. We're xxxxing a-mazing
                                                                It's alright
We dropped down from some other dimension
                                                                Db
                                                                Kiss me
Just to be with you
                                                                It's nice to be alive
Don't stress
                                                                [Solo]
That's dumb
                                                                Ah
                   Eb
                                                               Don't stress
I'm here, and it's nice to be alive
                                                                That's dumb
                                                                                   Fb
                                                                Db
Chill out
                                                                I'm here, and it's nice to be alive
It's alright
                                                                Chill out
Db
Kiss me
                                                               It's alright
It's nice to be alive
                                                                Kiss me
Lovers need lovers and I'm im-pressed by all the goods out on
                                                               It's nice to be alive
display
Eb7
I don't know what to say
                                                                It's nice to be alive
                                                               Db
I'm thinking, I'm thinking, Waaoooo-oooh
                                                               It's nice to be alive
                                                               Dh
                                                                                  Eb
I'd prefer your enthusiasm
                                                                It's nice to be a-live
```

Acordes

