

Barbie - Get Your Sparkle On

```
tom:
                                                                 Decisions, decisions
                Gh
        [Refrão]
                                                                 Dbadd9
                                                                 Don't think
Get your sparkle on
                                                                 Just follow your vision
                                                                 Badd9
Dhadd9
Show this world where you belong
                                                                 If it's you
All it takes is a little faith
                                                                 You know you can't go wrong
 Gb
Believina
                                                                 [Pré-Refrão]
Get your sparkle on
                                                                 Don't let the doubters
Dbadd9
Listen to your heart
                                                                 Shouters, pouters
                                                                 Badd9
And feel it beatin' strong
                                                                 T-turn you inside out
When you're in doubt
                                                                 Don't let 'em bring you down
                                                                               Fbm
Glitter it out
                                                                 You've got to move it
Every time
                                                                 Groove it, choose it
                                                                 Badd9
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                 Now is the time to prove it
                                                                                   Dbadd9
                                                                 Four, three, two, one
Lights up
                                                                 (Ponte, apenas voz)
Let's rock the runway
Dbadd9
                                                                 Dbadd9
This time we'll take the fun way
                                                                 You feel the music pumpin'
What's in you gotta let it out
                                                                 Give it a little something
                                                                 Dhadd9
                                                                 Make it a fashion mash up
Dig deep for inspiration
Dbadd9
                                                                 Life doesn't have to match up
Try on your new creation
                                                                 Dhadd9
                                                                 Be fearless in your design
Badd9
Stay true
                                                                 Confetti from the rafters
That's what it's all about
                                                                 Dbadd9
                                                                 You shimmer as do you shine
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                 Top there to ever after
Don't let the doubters
                                                                 [Refrão]
Shouters, pouters
Badd9
                                                                 Get your sparkle on
T-turn you inside out
                                                                 Show this world where you belong
Don't let 'em bring you down
                                                                 Badd9
                                                                 All it takes is a little faith
You've got to move it
                                                                  Gb
                                                                 Believing
Groove it, choose it
Badd9
Now is the time to prove it
                                                                 Get your sparkle on
                                                                 Dbadd9
Four, three, two, one
                                                                 Listen to your heart
[Refrão]
                                                                 And feel it beatin' strong
                                                                 When you're in doubt
Get your sparkle on
                                                                 Glitter it out
Dbadd9
Show this world where you belong
                                                                 Every time
All it takes is a little faith
 Gb
Believing
                                                                 Get your sparkle on
                                                                 Dbadd9
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                 Show this world where you belong
                                                                 All it takes is a little faith
```

Which pink?

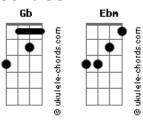

Gb Believing

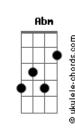

Get your sparkle on Dbadd9

Listen to your heart

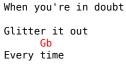

And feel it beatin' strong Badd9

Acordes

Get your sparkle on

Show this world where you belong

