

Barbie - Look How High We Can Fly

```
No coming down
                                                                  Em Gbm
               tom:
               Eb (forma dos acordes no tom de D )
                                                               So hang on for the ride
Capostraste na 1ª casa
Intro: Dadd9 Aadd9 Bm
                                                               [Refrão]
       Dadd9 Bm Dadd9 Bm
                                                                                    Dadd9
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               Look how high we can fly
                                                                                    Aadd9
Dadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
I lost myself today
                                                               We can see everything
Dadd9
              Bm
All work, no time to play
                          Dadd9
                                                               From up here in the sky
          Bm
I'm holding on to what I know
                                                               We've got the perfect view
Dadd9
                                                               Dadd9
Then this discovery
                                                               Together me and you
                                                                                       Dadd9
Dadd9
                                                               Aadd9
Blindfolded, I could see
                                                               Look how high we can fly
              Bm
                            Dadd9
I'm catching on by letting go
                                                               Oh yeah
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               [Ponte]
           G
                                                                                           Bm G
And now I'm rising up
                                                               I don't need to live in a fancy castle (oh no)
 Gbm G
                                                                                         Aadd9
No coming down
                                                               That isn't where I should be
  Em
         Gbm
                                                               Open up my heart and where it leads I'll follow
So hang on for the ride
                                                               Up high where I can be free
[Refrão]
                                                               (Refrão, até o final)
Look how high we can fly
                     Aadda
                                                                                    Dadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
Look how high we can fly
We can see everything
                                                               Look how high we can fly
                                                                              Bm
From up here in the sky
                                                               We can see everything
We've got the perfect view
                                                               From up here in the sky
Together me and you
                         Dadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
Aadd9
Look how high we can fly
                                                                                   Aadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               We can surf on the wind
Dadd9
                                                               So completely alive
Words come so easily
Dadd9
Hard to believe it's me
                                                               There's nothing we can't do
                               Dadd9
                                                               Dadd9
Dadd9
            Bm
                                         Bm
With every breath the feeling grows
                                                               Together me and you
Dadd9
              Bm
                                                                        Aadd9
                                                                                       Dadd9
Take time to make time stop
                                                               Look how high we can fly
Dadd9
             Bm
Unplug, turn off the clock
                              Dadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
              Bm
Dadd9
The less you try the more it flows
                                                                       Aadd9
                                                                                      Dadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                    Aadd9
                                                               Look how high we can fly
                                                                                    Dadd9
                Aadd9
I keep on rising up
                                                               Look how high we can fly
  Gbm G
```

Acordes

