

Barbra Streisand - Honey Pie

```
Tom: G
                                                              Makes me weak in the knees T. T. Tee
                                                                                                                     Eb7
                                                              Oh Honey Pie, you are driving me frantic
Em A G
                                                              F7
She was a working girl. North of England way
                                                              Sail across the Atlantic.
                                                                                            To be where you belong
Now she's in the big time. In the USA
                                                                    Eb7
                                                                             D7
                                               D7 D D7 D
                                                              Honey Pie, come back to me
And if she could only hear me, this is what I'd say
                                                              Interlude: G Eb7 E7 A7 D7 G Eb7 D7 G Eb7 E7 A7 D7 G Eb7 D7 G
Honey Pie, you are making me crazy
                                                                                              Gbm Em Gbm G
E7
     Eb7 D7
                                                              Will the wind that blew her boat across the sea
I'm in love but I'm lazy.
                              So won't you please come home
                                                              Kindly send her sailing back to me.
                                                                                                                 Eb7
Oh Honey Pie, my position is tragic.
                                                              Honey Pie, you are making me crazy
                                       Come and show me the
                                                                                                     D7
                                                              I'm in love but I'm lazy. So won't you please come home
Of your Hollywood Song
                       Gbm
                                                                                              Eb7
                                                              Come, come back to me Honey Pie, Ha ha ha
You became a legend of the silver screen
       Dm G7
                                                                                          D7
                                                                                              A7 CGCG Eb7 D7 G
                                                                             0о
   now the thought of meeting you.
                                                                                          Honey Pie come back
```

Acordes

