Tom: Ab
Intro: Fm Eb Db
                                 Dh
We were young and drinking in the park
                       Eb Db
There was nowhere else to go
                        Eb Db
And you said you always had my back
                       Eb Db
Oh but how were we to know
                               Fm
                                          Db Eb
That these are the days that bind you together, forever
                           Fm
                                     Db Eb
And these little things define you forever, forever
                       Db
All this bad blood here, wont you let it dry?
                       Db
Its been over for years, wont you let it lie?
                  Fb Db
If we're only ever looking back
                    Eb Db
We will drive ourselves insane
```

Acordes

As the friendship goes resentment grows
                  Eb Db
We will walk our different ways
