Bastille - The Anchor

Tom: G
Intro: C  Em  G  C
       C  Em  G  C

"What do you know about it?"
"Well, you can tell me."
"I can't tell you! Don't- you can't- you can't explain, man, what's going on in your brain.
You can't tell somebody how- what's happening, what's going on in your-"
"Why don't you just try?"

          C                      Em
Let those fools be loud, let alarms ring out
          G                  C
'Cause you cut through all the noise
        C                  Em
Let the days be dark, let me hate my work
          G                  C
'Cause you cut through all the noise

              Em
Bring me some hope
      C              D
By wandering into my mind
 Bm          Em
Something to hold on to
   C                    D
Morning, noon, day, or night

Bm          C            G
You are the light that is blinding me
                  D                 Em
You're the anchor that I tie to my brain
  D            C            G
'Cause when it feels like I'm lost at sea
          D                   Em
You're the song I sing again and again
  D      C        Em
All the time, all the time
     Bm          Em
I think of you all the time

          C                      Em
Let the parties end when we lose our friends
          G                  C
'Cause you cut through all the noise
        C                    Em
Let the years roll on 'till the static comes
          G                  C
'Cause you cut through all the noise

              Em
Bring me some hope
      C              D
