

B.B. King - The Fool

tom:

G

Gone are the days I'm holding you tight

Gone are the times I thrill with delight

Oh how I've missed you and your tender kiss

I've been a fool too long

I took your love then broke my heart

Can you forgive me, we'll make a new start

Guess life ain't worth living if you ain't giving

I've been a fool to long

I've played the field but could not conceal

The way I feel about you

Everyone guessed I had no happiness

Loving you the way I do

D7 C7
You carried my heart around in your hand
