

tom:

Beabadoobee - How Was Your Day

```
That I miss getting angry at you
D (forma dos acordes no tom de C ) Capostraste na 2^{\underline{a}} casa
                                                                           Cadd9
                                                                    'Cause at least I felt something new
Intro: C C C C
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                           Am
                                                                    'Cause I miss all the fuck ups we've
How was your day?
                                                                    Had
Was it okay?
                                                                    'Cause even then you're the best that
                                                                    D7 C F C
I've had
'Cause we haven't talked in a while
Forgotten how you used to smile
                                                                    [Ponte]
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                    'Cause even when we're miles away I
                                                                    Know
What do you look like?
                                                                    You'll still want me as usual
Remember when we used to fight?
    Gbm
                                                                    But the thing that I know is that
And I miss getting angry at you
                                                                    I wanna be with you
           Bb
'Cause at least I felt something new [Quinta Parte]
[Refrão]
                                                                    How was your day?
'Cause I miss all the fuck ups we've
                                                                    Was it okay?
'Cause even then you're the best that
                                                                    'Cause we haven't asked in a while
D7 CFC
                                                                           C
I've had
                                                                    Remember when we used to smile
[Terceira Parte]
                                                                    [Sexta Parte]
Call me up late
                                                                    You used to miss me
                                                                    Guess it's not hard to believe
Say it's okay
                                                                    Gbm Am
That things have to change like the
'Cause I'll be away a while
                                                                           Am
                                                                    Weather and the days
I can't remember your smile
[Quarta Parte]
                                                                    [Final]
                                                                                  Dm
You used to kiss me
                                                                    But the thing that I know is that I
Guess it's not hard to believe
                                                                    Wanna be with you
Acordes
                           © ukulele-chords.com
                                         ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                    ukulele-chords.com
            ukulele-chords.com
                  Cadd9
            ukulele-chords.com
```