Familiar places
C Em D
That I know the sadness only temporary
G C
It comes and it goes
Em D
Like the weather in the summer
G C Em
When the wind decides to move I look up to
D
The sky

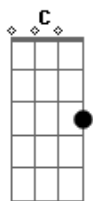

[Refrão]
G D Db
And think, "At least we look at the same
Moon"
G D Db
"At least we look at the same moon"
G C Em D G
The one of many ways I could think of you

G C Em D

[Segunda Parte]
G C Em D
The irony of looking up to something
G C
Or even just somebody
Em D
Can't put the face onto the name
G C
That I don't even know
Em D
The half of what you had
G C
I had a dad that didn't know
Em D
We both looked at the sky and thought

[Refrão]
G D Db
"At least we look at the same moon"
G D Db
"At least we look at the same moon"
G C Em D G
I wish I met the man who had left too soon
