

Beast In Black - Blind And Frozen

tom:

G

Once I touched your heart
Held you in closed arms
Built a haven for your love
Until I let you fall apart
Please forgive me

Em

God I miss you like hell
I was wrong I can tell
For the heart can be blind and frozen
Now I live with the pain
Every night, every day
As I read those letters you wrote me
How I long for the time
When your lips would kiss mine
And the promise was still unbroken
I will wait for tomorrow
That may never come
I will wait in the name of love

Em

My forlorn heart faintly beats
Your absence makes me weak
And if nothing brings you back
Surely I'll roam through life in black
Like a shadow

Em

God I miss you like hell
I was wrong I can tell
For the heart can be blind and frozen
Now I live with the pain

Em

Every night, every day
As I read those letters you wrote me
How I long for the time
When your lips would kiss mine
And the promise was still unbroken
I will wait for tomorrow
That may never come
I will wait in the name of love

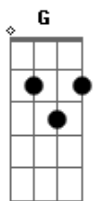

Em

Every night, every day
As I read those letters you wrote me
How I long for the time
When your lips would kiss mine
And the promise was still unbroken
That may never come
I will wait in the name of love

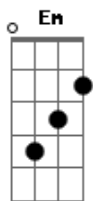

Em

God I miss you like hell
I was wrong I can tell
Every night, every day
As I read those letters you wrote me
How I long for the time
That may never come
I will wait in the name of love
