

Beck - Beautiful Way

Tom: Bb

F
The searchlights on the skyline Just looking for a friend who's gonna love my baby when she's gone around the bend

Bb
egyptian bells are ringing when it's her birthday

sweet nothing I'm talking about you there's a hurricane blowing your way

ohh such a beautiful way to break your heart
to break my heart

Eb
bah bah bah bah

Bb

there's someone calling your name

it's driving you insane you were wearing that stained raincoat and your umbrella was a tangled mess you were washed up on the glittering shoals looking for another crime to confess you bribed yourself out of a place in the sun but you had some change to spare so you said you wanna spend it on me and shook the blues out of your hair

you're gonna miss that train
