Fourteen rivers
fourteen floods

send your body to the heavens above.
Don't get drunk
don't get dry
just bring your money next Saturday night.

Forty miles on a cattle trail with a happy mule
and nothing on my mind
all my life I've been talking fast taking all the things that I should have let pass.

Throw my hat on a coffee mill put another brick
in the fire place.
Well I don't know about you or me but some got loose
back on down.
