

Beck - Gamma Ray

Tom: D
Intro: E D G A

D G Bm
If I could hold, hold out for now
D G Bm
With these icecaps melting down
D G Bm
With the transistor sound
D G Bm
And my Chevrolet terraplane
E
Going around around around

D G A E
Come on little gamma ray
D G A E
Standing in a hurricane

D G A
Your brains are bored like a refugee from a house that's burning
D G A
And the heat wave's calling your name

Bm - E - G - D - G Bm
She's got a cactus crown
D G Bm
With a dot dot dot on her brow
D G Bm
And she speaks inside a cloud
D G Bm
E

With her countenance turning around around around around around

D G A E
Come on little gamma ray
D G A E
Standing in a hurricane

D
I'm pulling out thorns
G A E
Smokestack lightning out my window

D G
I want to know what I've lost today

D G A E
Come on little gamma ray
D G A E
Standing in a hurricane

He starts picking here, but I didn't really have time to figure it all out. I think the song sounds fine without, but tab it out if you have the time.

D
Your body's bored
G A E
Like a refugee from a house that's burning
D G
And the backwater's calling your name
