

Bee Gees - Cucumber Castle

Tom: F

Gm F
Here were the trees, see the grass, a Pinkerton spy.
Fm Bb D
Said "This is the place I will try," and he did.
Gm F
Stood in the dark ,sat a man who beckoned him in,
Fm Bb D
But leaving his grass was a sin, but he did.

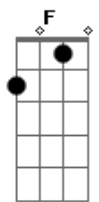

G C G
Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
Bb D Gm
He saw the light in the cellar reflect in his eyes,
Bb F7 G
Yet early that morning was he to receive a surprise.
G C G

Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
G C G
Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.

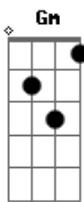

Gm F
Said 'Are you leaving or are you receiving my friend,
Fm Bb D
Doest need any money till then" and he did .
Gm F
He said "I'm the owner,not you, and this is my stead,
Fm Bb D
So give it to me now I'm dead, and he did , said:

G C G
Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
G C G
Cucumber Castle be ever so humble it's home.
