

Bee Gees - Ellan Vannin

Tom: C

When the summer day is over
 Its busy cares have flown
 I will sit beneath the starlight
 With a weary heart alone.

Then it rises like a vision
 Sparkling bright it shines for me
 My own dear Ellan Vannin
 With its green hills by the sea.

Let me hear the ocean murmur

Let me watch your stormy sky
 Then above the emerald waters
 Sings the sea-eagle as she flies.

Then arising like a vision
 Sparkling bright it shines for me
 My own dear Ellan Vannin
 With its green hills by the sea.

And in all my times of sorrow
 And on some lonely shore
 I'll go back to Ellan Vannin
 To my childhood days once more.
