

Bee Gees - Kilburn Towers

Tom: D

I am a bird; watch me go drifting by
 With my feathers of power i laugh as the hours go slowly by
 That could mean ev'rything
 I am a street watching the people walk
 As i listen their conversations glisten as they start to talk
 Then i hear ev'rything
 Little white jug, me and kilburn towers

As we sit on the hill and we drink and we swill
 Till the early hours
 Then i am ev'rything
 Little white jug and me and kilburn towers
 That could mean ev'rything
 Little white jug, me and kilburn towers,
 As we sit on the hill and we drink and we swill
 Till the early hours
 Then i am ev'rything
 Little white jug and me and kilburn towers
