

Belle And Sebastian - Im Waking Up To Us

Tom: E

I need someone to take some joy in something I do E Am E
 You need a man who's either rich, or losing a screw Dbm
 You know I love you here's the irony: B
 You're going to walk away intact, Dbm
 I think you never loved me anyway B
 You love yourself and you love men E to kiss your arse, expensive clothes, please stop me there B
 I think I'm waking up to us, we're a disaster E A B
 You don't want to know me cause you move in E A B Dbm
 Circles of the brave, where art defines their lives. E A B
 Am E
 She was the one love of my life, and I let her go E A B
 And if I look like death today, then please let her know B
 I never wanted any harm for her, A Dbm B
 I only wanted her to see the beauty of the world surrounding her A E
 But when she opened up her eyes B E

B
 It's much too late, our chance is gone, she's with a guy E A B
 Who takes the prize for everything I ever showed her E A B
 Digging all the fun because she's older E A B Dbm
 I fed her with a spoon, I made her mother smile, B
 I helped the kid survive.
 Ponte 2x: E D A C
 She was the one love of my life, she showed me the road E Am E
 I loved her dog, her steady gaze, the chapter is closed. Dbm B A
 Dbm
 I only wanted all the best for her, the best thing was to stay away
 E
 She grew up and she left the rest of us A E
 And now the understanding's gone Dbm B E B
 I haven't changed, how could I? I'm pretty much the same person E B E A B
 I cannot keep the anger hidden anymore, but lucky for you E A B E A B
 You are not around, my anger turns to pity and to love, Dbm
 The season has arrived, The season has arrived.

Acordes

