

Belle And Sebastian - Piazza, New York Catcher

Tom: Gb

(com acordes na forma de E)
Capostrate na 2ª casa
(intro) E

E A E
Elope with me Miss Private and we'll sail around the world
Gb Dbm B
I will be your Ferdinand and you my wayward girl
Gb B
How many nights of talking in hotel rooms can you take?
Gb B
How many nights of limping round on pagan holidays?
A Dbm
Oh, elope with me in private and we'll set something ablaze
Gb B Dbm
A trail for the devil to erase

E A E
San Francisco's calling us, the Giants and Mets will play
Gb Dbm
Piazza, New York catcher, are you straight or are you gay?
Gb B
We hung about the stadium, we've got no place to stay
Gb B
We hung about the tenderloin and tenderly you tell
A
About the saddest book you've ever read
Dbm
That always makes you cry
Gb B Dbm
The statue's crying too and well he may

E A E
I love you I've a drowning grip on your adoring face
Gb Dbm
I love you, my responsibility has found a place
Gb B
Beside you and strong warnings in the guise of gentle words
Gb B
Come wave upon me from the family wider net absurd
A Dbm
?You'll take care of her, I know it, you will do a better job"
Gb B Dbm

Maybe, but not what she deserves

E A E
Elope with me Miss Private and we'll drink ourselves awake
Gb Dbm
We'll taste the coffee houses and award certificates
Gb B
a privy seal to keep the feel of 1960 style
Gb B
We'll comment on the decor and we'll help the passer by
A Dbm
And at dusk when work is over we'll continue the debate
Gb B Dbm
In a borrowed bedroom virginal and spare

E A E
The catcher hits for .318 and catches every day
Gb Dbm
The pitcher puts religion first and rests on holidays
Gb B
He goes into cathedrals and lies prostrate on the floor
Gb B
He knows the drink affects his speed he's praying for a doorway
A Dbm
Back into the life he wants and the confession of the bench
Gb B Dbm
Life outside the diamond is a wrench

E A E
I wish that you were here with me to pass the dull weekend
Gb Dbm
I know it wouldn't come to love, my heroine pretend
Gb B
A lady stepping from the songs we love until this day
Gb B
You'd settle for an epitaph like "Walk Away, Renee"
A Dbm
The sun upon the roof in winter will draw you out like a flower
Gb B Dbm
Meet you at the statue in an hour
Gb B Dbm
Meet you at the statue in an hour
