

Ben Harper - Roses From My Friends

Tom: G
Intro: G D - D2 Am
G D Am
I could have treated you better
G D Am
But you couldn't have treated me worse
G D Am
But it's he who laughs last
G D Am
Is he who cries first

(sem correr nas cordas)

(joga também imediatamente antes do começo dos versos, antes do G)

G D Am
Sometimes I feel I know strangers
G D Am
Better than I know my friends
G D Am
Why must a beginning
G D Am
Be the means to an end
G C
The stones from my enemies
G C
These wounds will mend
Em D
But I cannot survive

G D Am
When the last word has been spoken
G D Am
And we've beared witness to the final setting sun

(sem correr nas cordas)

(joga também imediatamente antes do começo dos versos, antes do G)

G D Am
All that shall remain is a token

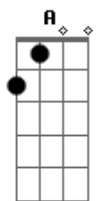

G D Am
Of what we've said and done
G D Am
When all we've had has been forsaken
G D Am
Distant church bells no longer ring
G D Am
That's the sound of a heart taken
G D Am
And the story of tears from a king

G C
The stones from my enemies
G C
These wounds will mend
Em D
But I cannot survive
C G
the roses from my friends
Em D C - Bm - A
oh i cannot survive the roses

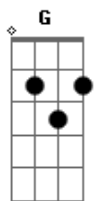

(repete o verso)
This may be the last time I see you
Forgive me for holding you close
This may be the last time that I see you
So of this moment I will make the most
This may be the last time I see you
But if you keep me in your heart
Together we shall be eternal
If you believe
We shall never part

G C
The stones from my enemies
G C
These wounds will mend
Em D
But I cannot survive
C G
the roses from my friends
Em D
oh i cannot survive
C Bm A (x3)
the roses...
C Bm Bb C G
i cannot survive the roses from my friends.
