Ben Harper - Show me a Little Shame

```
Tom: C
Intro: C  ...
------
just before the verse,he plays that:
e|-------|
B|-------|
G|-------|
D|-------|
A|---0-2-|
E|-3-----|
couplet:
--------
              C         G F
You, you've been looking at me  just a little too long,
    C    G           C       G
now I can never look the same
C          G        F
Blindness and kindness, there's no difference in the two
          C        G          C    G
when I can no longer see the good in you refrain:
--------
           F      G      C     C7
So won't you show me a little shame
          F      G     C      G
Won't you show me a little shame
couplet:
Now 'cause I'm, I'm a gentleman, before gentlewomen, so-called ladies keep

breakin my heart
Show me your house, show me your home, show me how it could all fall apart
refrain:
So won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
bridge:

                    Am                        C
'Cause now I wake up in the morning more tired than before I slept Am                                F
I get through crying and I sat up and before I wept
G                            Am          G       F
I get through thinking and the thoughts have left my head Bb                                          F
G
I get through speaking and I can't remember not a word that I said
couplet:
You change your mind so many times, I wonder if you have a mind at all
And I rather be by myself than to have your lonesome company come to call refrain:
So won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
