

Ben Lapidus - Parmesan Cheese

```
Is There {\color{red} {\bf A}} Shortage Of Parmesan
                Bb (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
                                                                    G
                                                              Is It Really That Expensive
Capostraste na 3ª casa
                                                               I Just Want More Cheese Is That So Wrong
When I Get Pasta At A Restaurant
And The Waiter Comes Around G Am
                                                              Just Leave It At The Table
                                                               I Can Serve Myself For God?s Sake
With The Parmesan Cheese
     С
He Says Parmesan And I Say Please
                                                               I?m A Grown Up, I Have Rights
                                                               And I Will Not Be Shamed For My Cheese Intake
He Gives Me A Spoonful
                                                                        Am
And Says Would You Like More
                                                              I Always Want More Parmesan
And I Say Sure As If It?s No Big Deal
                                                              But I?m Embarrassed
                                                               Em G
As If It?s Not My Reason For Em G
                                                              I Always Want More Parmesan
                                                                       D
Choosing An Italian C D
                                                              But I?m Embarrassed
Restaurant In The First Place
                                                              I Will Not Remain Silent
He Looks At Me And Says Is That Good?
                                                              I Will Not Give In
Yeah, That?s Good Thanks
                                                              I Will Die Before I Let Big Parma Win
I Always Want More Parmesan
                                                               I Always Want More Parmesan
        D
                                                                      D
But I?m Embarrassed
                                                               But I?m Embarrassed
    Am
                                                               Em G
I Always Want More Parmesan
                                                               I Always Want More Parmesan
But I?m Embarrassed
                                                               But I?m Embarrassed
                                                                  G
                                                              I?m Embarrassed
Why Are They So Stingy
Acordes
     вь
                                 ⇒ ukulele-chords.com
```