

Ben Platt - Honest Man

```
Intro: F C F C G Am F C
                                                                      By the way that you say my name
There's something about you in the moonlight
                                                                      I am an honest man
        Am G
But your eyes go so well with the day
                                                                     Why can't you take my hand?
You won't let go of your layers

Am G C

But your power can strip me away
                                                                      I'm not what you planned but, I'm a safe place to land
                                                                      I am an honest man
                                                                      See me as I am, show me that I can \stackrel{\frown}{\mathsf{F}}
It's easier for us to hide
                                                                      You make me an honest man
If you come out, then so will \ensuremath{\mathrm{I}}
                                                                      I know I played with hearts before
Promise that I'll meet you halfway
'Cause I see every part of you
                                                                      Don't have a heart to play with yours
And I can tell you see me, too
                                                                      I only swear to do the best I can
By the way that you say my name
                                                                      'Cause when you put your trust in me
                                                                      How beautiful our love could be
I am an honest man
                                                                      If only you would take a chance
Why can't you take my hand?
\ensuremath{\mathbf{I}}\xspace m not what you planned but, \ensuremath{\mathbf{I}}\xspace m a safe place to land
                                                                      I am an honest man
I am an honest man
                                                                      Why won't you take my hand?
                                                                      I'm not what you planned but, I'm a safe place to land
You're so afraid of tomorrow
                                                                      I am an honest man
So you build your walls up today
                                                                      I am an honest man
You won't believe that you're ready
  Am G C
                                                                      Why won't you hold my hand?
But I'd never lead you astray
                                                                      I'm not what you planned but, I'm a safe place to land
     Am7
It's easier for us to hide
                                                                      I am an honest man
If you come out, then so will \ensuremath{\mathrm{I}}
                                                                      See me as I am, show me that I can
Promise that I'll meet you halfway
                                                                      You make me an honest man
'Cause I see every part of you
                                                                      I said all I can, I am who I am
And I can tell you see me, too
                                                                      And I am an honest man
