Ben Platt - Honeymind

              tom:
                G
          G           Am              Bm
You melt me away, stretch out my days
        Bbm  Am7       G
Turn all my   colors into hues
          Am              Bm
Filtering rays, magnolia shade
        Bbm  Am7       G
Under the  cover of you
G            Am           Bm     Bbm  Am7
All the words I?ve ever said are tumbling
G            Am           Bm     Bbm  Am7
All the walls inside my head are crumbling

[Chorus]
        C             D
Oh, honey mine, you slow the time
      G       D     Em
My days and dreams all bleed together
C             D
Me oh my, I'm lucky I
      G       D     Em
Can swim this golden glow forever
          C             Cm   G
Right here inside my honeymind

[Interlude]
G           Am
Hmm hmm hmm hmm
              G
Hmm hmm hmm hmm
          Bbm Am7
Hmm hmm hmm hmm hmm hmmmmm

[Verse 2]
G            Am              Bm
You loosen my grip, fruit in my fist
        Bbm  Am7       G
Runs through my  fingers to the sea
          Am              Bm
All the ?what-if's? soften and drip
      Bbm   Am7
Into an   ocean of me
G            Am           Bm     Bbm  Am
Buzzing bees in peoni?s are rumbling
G            Am           Bm     Bbm  Am7
Intertwined in moonl?ss skies, we're fumbling

[Chorus]
        C             D
Oh, honey mine, you slow the time
      G       D     Em
My days and dreams all bleed together
C             D
Me oh my, I'm lucky I
      G       D     Em
Can swim this golden glow forever
          C             Cm   G
Right here inside my honeymind

[Interlude]
G           Am

[Chorus]
        C             D
Oh, honey mine, you slow the time
      G       D     Em
But days and dreams don't last forever
      C             D
Not evergreen but ever-sweet
      G       D     Em
To swim this golden glow together
          C             Cm   G
Right here inside my honeymind

[Final]
G           Am
Hmm hmm hmm hmm

Hmm hmm hmm hmm
          Bbm Am7
