

Ben Rosenfield - Marble Song

Tom: D
Intro: D A7 Em

D A7 Em
I have walked so much farther I thought
D A7 Em
I should drink out of this afternoon talk
D A7 Em G
So I'd fall asleep before I go dark

D A7 Em
Drinking champagne from a gold paper cup
D A7 Em
There's this refrain that never gives up
D A7 Em G
It's in your blazing blue eyes, it's enough

Em A7 D G Gadd9# Em
That pin point rage I felt growing up
A7 D
I can't shake it away

D A7 Em
I lie awake with my face to the door
D A7 Em
I never ask you why or what for
D A7 Em G
I'm so afraid that I'll never get cured

Bm Em A7 D G Em A7 D
Luck is like a marble on the stage

It waits for a big grace to fall

D A7 Em
I breathe my name against the cool glass
D A7 Em
I dissolve the day despise my past
D A7 Em G
Ecstatic; nothing has silenced that gas

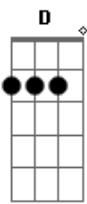

D A7 Em
I took an oath before I turned ten
D A7 Em
Hand over heart I became a man
D A7 Em G
Swore not to be the coward I am

Em A7 D G Gadd9# Em
That pin point rage I felt growing up
A7 D
Returned with a vengeance today

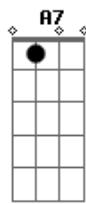

Bm Em A7 D
Luck is like a marble on the stage
Bm Em A7 D G Em A7 D
It waits for a stair to fail

D A7 Em
Where did you acquire your magic affects?
D A7 Em
It'll take a long time to improve and effect
D A7 Em
To dissolve and destroy when I least expect
