

Beno Arraes - I'm Ready

```
tom:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                D Gbm
              I'm ready to try again
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       G Gm
              I'm ready to try again % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
                                                                                                                                                               D Gbm
              I'm ready to try again % \left\{ 1,2,...,n\right\}
              Can you be next to me?
D Gbm
I've been a little crazy
G Gm
I left the town for the road
D Gbm G Gm
I waited and waited so long
D Gbm G Gm
When I found my way, thinking it was right
D Gbm G Gm
I didn2t remember the times I fell
              I didn?t remember the times I fell
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            D
              I'm ready to try again
                                                                                                                                                                                             G Gm
              I'm ready to try again % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
                                                                                                                                                                                        D Gbm
              I'm ready to try again
                                                                                                                                                                         G
```

Acordes

```
Can you be next to me?
So you told me
D Gbm G Gm
"Stop, see what you are doing."
 D Gbm G
And I realized that I was dying in my pride

D Gbm G Gm

With you, I'm sure of myself, of my choice
D Gbm G Gm
Of my life and especially of our love
I'm ready to try again
I'm ready to try again
     D Gbm
I'm ready to try again
   G Gm
Can you be next to me?
I'm ready to try again
     G Gm
I'm ready to try again
          D Gbm
I'm ready to try again G Gm
Can you be next to me?
```