Things I may have said minutes ago, our
Abm Db

Moments, fading whispers
Gb B E

Sorry, I'm supposed to know
But I swear to you
When I glance at things
          Gb
Before even thinking
Your name comes to frame
You hang in my sight
And I really don't mind to
      Gb
Find new ways
               Bbm
To remind me of you
And when I forget the way you look
              Gb
You'll find me wandering the Louvre
And if it's the brushstrokes of your eyes
           Fbm
                       Gb
I'll keep Monet's gardens at sight
               Abm
And I wouldn't mind writing every day
```

```
Pledge my hands to sparks of you
 Abm Db
Anything to bring them sweet and clear
Anything that reminds me of you, oh

I'll build a house
            Db
White with green shutters
                         B B7M
   Gb
And a room overlooking the lake
              Abm
I'll lay by the porch
Like we used to
