To save myself before I let you in

I'll be back you said

I'm still waiting
Bb
Tell me how the story started

Change the way it ends

Make it so I learn to love again

Tell me that old memories are better laid to rest
Gm		F
And maybe losing you was for the best

But I wonder does she ever cross your mind

Do you remember the girl you left behind?

But I wonder does she ever cross your mind

Do you remember the girl you left behind?
