

Beto Lani - Inside

tom:

Am

So, you see my point?

And still you claim you have nowhere else to go

I heard it loud

But giving up isn't the answer and you know

I have to show

You have to figure that out all alone

You're on your own

This room is yours and only yours to get out

It's not late to feel alive

When the Sun outside light the fire that's inside

And never dies

It's filling you can't hide and coming out

You will gaze the sky

You can fly that high

You

You're coming through

Never doubt your self

I've been here with you

Not that you knew

In a distance I set you in the right way

It's not late to feel alive

When the Sun outside light the fire that's inside

And never dies

It's filling you can't hide and coming out

You will gaze the sky

You can fly that high

You can get out

(F Am G)

Your eyes have flooded out with fear

It's not like you deserve

Now I will take it from here

Just stay behind me

D?you see the flames layd on the floor?

Follow the up to the shore

Don't look back

I shout it loud just run

Think about what you've become so

Don't let your head down

You will welcome down tonight

The pain you left behind

When the sun up high lit the fire deep inside

By that time

You realized you were never ment to hide

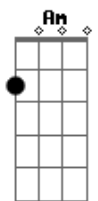

Was hard to fight

So just rest out tonight

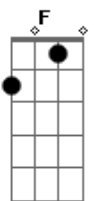

Tomorrow you'll feel alive

Tomorrow you fell
