Acordes

The image shows five chord diagrams for the following chords: E, A, Gbm, B, and Dbm. Each diagram is a 4x4 grid representing the fretboard of a ukulele. The strings are numbered 1 to 4 from top to bottom. The diagrams show the finger positions for each chord. The E chord has dots on strings 1, 2, and 3 at the first fret. The A chord has dots on strings 1, 2, and 3 at the second fret. The Gbm chord has dots on strings 1, 2, and 3 at the second fret, with a diamond symbol above the second fret indicating a barre. The B chord has a horizontal bar on string 4 at the second fret, and dots on strings 1, 2, and 3 at the second fret. The Dbm chord has a horizontal bar on string 4 at the second fret, and dots on strings 1, 2, and 3 at the second fret, with a diamond symbol above the second fret indicating a barre.
