Estrofas

(Parte 1)
Shoved in the kitchen of a city tomb

The light would flicker like a violent womb

The night was thicker than a smokey fume

(Parte 2)
Liza waited in the room

(Parte 1)
Benny loved her like he loved no one

The way she'd laugh and hold a smoking gun

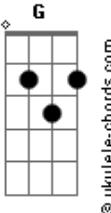

The way she always said: What's done is done

(Parte 2)
And he was not the only one

A victim healer with a sharp, sharp blade

Benny knew how she was getting paid

We're outta money and we sold the bling
